Celebrating our 50th Anniversary

Our plans for FCBG's 50th anniversary celebrations are now well under way.

It will be hosted by the Hertfordshire Children's Book Group at Queenswood School, Hatfield from Friday 13th April to Sunday 15th April 2018. - National initiatives will be temporarily renamed: Golden CBA, Golden NNFN and Golden NSSM.
- A celebratory event for children will take place in Birmingham on Saturday 3rd November 2018 at the Conservatoire.
- We will also be spotlighting the History of the Federation with a publication to complement a special set of display boards (which groups can book, see details below) and dedicated pages on the website.

As part of the celebrations, we would like to invite all our Children's Book Groups to:

- Submit between 200-400 words about your group plus 3 or 4 photos to help us complete the documentation of our Federation's history. We need these short accounts as soon as possible but don't feel daunted - Herts CBG has kindly allowed us to include their account below so you can see what we're looking for. We really need your input URGENTLY! So please get typing and email your account immediately to Karen Hellewell on info@fcbg.org.uk
- 50 Golden Treasures: Submit titles of up to 50 favourite books published during the last 50 years to Louise Stothard louisestothard@aol.com by 31st August 2017. These can be nominated by children and adults and presented in order of preference. 10 per titles per decade would be good. Where there are more than one in a series, just give the series title.
- Submit a proposal for a blog that you would like to contribute during 2018. This is an opportunity to celebrate the work that you do and could be about the history of your group; an event or events run by the group; your experience of participating in one of the national events; what it's like to be one of the testing groups; how you work with local schools and/or other organisations.; or anything else you would like to write about your group. Contributions from young members would also be welcome.

Please submit your proposal to Chris Routh chrisrouth@leightonpark.com by 31st October 2017. This is to help us plan the programme - you do not need to write the blog at this stage.

A Short History of Herts Children's Book Group

Our Book Group began about 30 years ago with Joyce DuCane being particularly involved at this point. It was a very active group and organised lots of activities including book jamborees, all day events in schools on a Saturday, Christmas shopping mornings and, of course, the infamous armchair traveller. The latter came about from a number of books that Joyce had collected on her travels. In the summer holidays each child had a passport and chose books from different continents or countries. This collection has been donated to the Seven Stories in Newcastle-upon-Tyne and they use it extensively. It is also seen as an early forerunner of the Summer Reading Challenge.

In these early days members tended to be interested individuals rather than the many school members the group has now. Whilst at times it has looked as though the group may cease to exist it has come bouncing back, usually with Maureen Irving's refusal to give in!

Nowadays the group holds fewer events as membership is largely school librarians who are working full time. Our flagship annual event is the James Mayhew day of concerts where talented author/illustrator James who created the Katie books draws live on stage whilst the local de Havilland Philharmonic Orchestra at the University of Hertfordshire plays. This last November saw a Shakespearean theme with James' book 'Ella Bella Ballerina and A Midsummer Night's Dream' and each year is different. The 400 seat auditorium is filled twice on the day and local and not so local families come along for the event, buy James' books and have them signed personally. The beautiful illustrations are raffled off, this year raising over a thousand pounds for a refugee charity. This has all come about through a chance meeting between Jayne Truran and Maureen Irving that was relayed to James! Live drawing/painting events have now mushroomed and take place all over the country.

Sunday stories, book swaps and The Big Draw now feature and with our lively, friendly regular meetings members inspire each other with their love of all things bookish! The team is looking forward to hosting the special 50th anniversary Conference at Queenswood in April 2018.

FCBG History: Travelling Display

As part of the 50th anniversary celebrations, Karen Hellewell is putting together 5 x A1 display boards (594mm x 841mm /23.4 inches x 33.1 inches) covering the achievements of the FCBG. There will be "A Histree" showing the growth of the Federation (portrait) and 4 others (landscape) to cover NSSM, NNFN, CBA, Conferences, Anthologies, Newsletters and other significant episodes in the FCBG history.

This display will be securely packed in very sturdy packaging for transport around the country to any group wishing to display them at their group celebrations during 2018. Karen has organised a timetable for groups to book the display and some slots are already filled.

To book your slot, please contact Karen on info@fcbg.org.uk by 31st October 2017. Karen will email out images of the display boards as soon as they come back from the designer.
